Visit to an Old Age Home

Recently, we visited an old age home as part of our college nss activity. It was a meaningful and emotional experience for all of us.

At the old age home, we met many elderly people who welcomed us with warm smiles. We spoke to them, listened to their life stories, and spent time with them. Some of them shared their experiences, while others were happy just to talk and laugh with us.

We also sang songs and helped in small activities. Though they had basic facilities, we realized that what they needed most was love, care, and companionship.

This visit taught us an important lesson — we should always respect and care for our elders. Spending time with them made us understand the value of family, kindness, and gratitude.

The visit to the old age home was truly memorable and inspired us to be more compassionate and responsible human beings.
